Erik Spiekermann

← Erik

Typographic
ALL

Erik Spiekermann

Erik Spiekermann is a Typographer from Germany. He is an innovator, student, teacher, author, and one of the most influential typographers of his time. Starting his career by running a letterpress business from his own home, funding his college education. Spiekermann has won many awards for his contribution to the typography field including: the Gerrit Noordzij Prize, European Design Awards, German Design Award, and the TCD Medal Lifetime Award. He currently runs a letterpress shop in Germany. His design company, Edenspiekermann, still has and runs offices in the US, Netherlands, and Germany.

COMPLETE LIST OF SPIEKERMANN FONTS

Font	Year
Berliner Grotesk	1978
Lo-Type	1980
ITC Officina Sans	1990
ITC Officina Serif	1990
FF Meta	1991-1998
FF Info	2000
FF Govan	2001
Nokia Sans	2002-2011
FF Unit	2003
FF Meta Serif	2007
FF Unit Slab	2009
FF Real	2011
Fira Sans	2013
Case, Case Text, Case Micro	2020

FUN FACT: In May 2007, Spiekermann was the first designer to be elected into the European Design Awards Hall of Fame.